

NWCO Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does NWCO stand for in wildlife management?

- A) Nuisance Wildlife Control Operator
- B) National Wildlife Conservation Organization
- C) Northwest Wildlife Control Office
- D) Natural Wildlife Care Operations

2. Which method is considered the most humane for wildlife control?

- A) Lethal trapping only
- B) Live capture and relocation when appropriate
- C) Poisoning
- D) Habitat destruction

3. Before removing wildlife, what should an NWCO always consider first?

- A) Cost of removal
- B) Time of year and presence of young
- C) Property value impact
- D) Weather conditions

4. Which animals are commonly handled by NWCOs?

- A) Raccoons, squirrels, and bats
- B) Domestic cats and dogs
- C) Exotic pets
- D) Farm livestock

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-A

For More NWCO Questions and Answers FREE, NWCO Online Prep Training, NWCO Exam, NWCO Study Guide, NWCO Flashcards, NWCO Quizzes visit:

NWCO Practice Test